

Locking hands (Extremities included)

In this situation with leg included it is a (TV) when applied by wrestler in the advantage position
Wrestler A. Stop the match and penalize.

NFHS Rule 7-3-3 states in-part: Interlocking or overlapping the hands, fingers or arms around the opponent's body (with or without arms included) or both legs by a wrestler in the advantage position...is a Technical Violation (TV)...

If Wrestler A takes Wrestler B to a stacked near fall position, Wrestler A has committed a (TV) and shall not be rewarded for locking hands.

NOTE: The encircled leg and torso in this body cradle is no different than a locking hands around the torso with an arm encircled. In fact, Wrestler B is placed even more at a disadvantage with a leg and torso being encircled versus torso encirclement with an arm included, (TV)
